DEVELOPMENT SECRETARIAT

Dated 7th February 1948.

PRESS NOTE.

No. D. 3886. On account of the unfortunate demise of Mahatma Gandhi all Government Industrial Concerns in the State were closed on Saturday the 31st January 1948, and those in Bangalore and Mysore also on Monday the 2nd February 1948.

In consonance with the desire of the Government of India that the 12th instant should also be observed as a Public Holiday thoughout the Indian Dominion, this Government have declared that day as a Holiday. This will apply also to Government Industrial Concerns and private concerns are expected to follow suit. The stoppage of work in factories on so many days will considerably affect production. To make up for this loss of production in some measure at least, Government desire that Sunday the 15th instant be treated as a working day and they trust that Labour will fully co-operate in this respect.
